WHAT IS GAME CHANGER

Game Changer is a project delivered by Barnsley FC Community Trust and local partners made up of Barnsley Council, Sheffield FA, Coalfields Regeneration Trust, Barnsley CVS, and Barnsley Central Area Council Team. It is a part of a national programme delivered by the Football Foundation and Sport England and funded by the National Lottery. It is a part of the Active Through Football programme that has been rolled out nationally across 25 different areas of England.

The project is ring-fenced for the Kendray and Worsbrough areas of Barnsley with the focus being on Mental Wellbeing, Food Security, Community, Employability & Skills, and Physical Health. We work with a wide variety of people with our youngest participant being 2 year old and our eldest being 98!
